

Use Contractor Connection[®] to rebuild with confidence

When facing property damage, choosing the right contractor matters. As a Grange policyholder, you have access to Contractor Connection—a network of licensed, bonded and insured professionals who are ready to help you restore and rebuild your home.

Support when you need it

This complimentary service is designed to save you time, reduce stress and protect your investment:

Verified professionals:

All contractors are licensed, bonded and insured. Their employees complete annual background checks for added peace of mind.

Trusted work:

Contractors meet strict standards and can secure materials upfront, before payment.

Industry-leading warranty:

You'll receive a five-year labor and material warranty from Contractor Connection. This is far beyond the average 90-day to one-year labor warranty.

Emergency support:

A vendor is available 24/7 to provide mitigation services, such as storm or water damage response. Once the work is assigned, you'll will receive a call within 15 minutes to confirm next steps.*

You're in control:

The program is optional. A local contractor will assess your project and provide an estimate. You're free to choose a different contractor outside of the Contractor Connection program if you prefer.
